

WORST PLACES AND TIMES TO INTERVIEW

Babich & Associates
214.823.9999
www.babich.com

E. 57th Street Partners
214.823.6440
www.e57partners.com

The worst places to conduct an interview, beginning with the worst:

Airports, train stations, and bus stops

Taxicabs

Limousines

Sporting events

Hospitals, unless you're applying for a job there

Social events, such as Christmas parties, New Year's Eve parties, picnics

Automobiles, especially while driving

Personal residences

Anywhere outdoors, such as parks

Over the phone

Starbucks

Hotel lobbies

The manufacturing plant floor

Restaurants

Anyplace other than a business office is not optimal!

The worst times to do face-to-face interviews, beginning with the worst:

Sunday evening

Monday morning at 8 a.m.

Any other time on Monday morning

When you're sick with a fever

Saturday

The first morning back from vacation

Returning from dropping kids off at school, or doctor's appointments, or personal errands

Religious or secular holidays, such as Christmas, Thanksgiving, and Rosh Hashanah.